The pressure is on. To perform. To succeed.

A volatile business environment, increasing competition, constantly evolving markets, globalization and technology are key issues that keep business leaders up at night. Your need is to transform challenges into opportunities.

You have what it takes to get the job done: human capital. Having the right people is one thing. Ensuring that they perform at their peak is another.

Improving human performance translates to business results.

Invest in your people.

Your challenge is performance.

When you need to:

- implement new technology, systems and processes
- provide product knowledge training and support
- build customer service skills
- help your people to do more, faster...with less

HSA can help.

Our solutions, people and processes can help you improve workplace performance, time to competency, and provide a significant ROI. All this while eliminating unnecessary costs and effort.

HSA is a leader in workplace performance improvement. Our proven learning and performance solutions have helped maximize employee performance at hundreds of organizations throughout the world.

We can do it for you, too.

Their publishing and editorial credits include both editions of the Handbook of Human Performance Technology. Dr. Stolovitch is an emeritus professor at the Université de Montréal and a clinical professor at the University of Southern California.

Performance Solutions

Training is not always the appropriate solution for performance issues. Even when suitable, it rarely is sufficient to achieve and sustain desired performance improvement results. HSA designs and develops interventions to address your critical, non-learning performance needs.

- Assessment / Certification
- Job Aids
- On-line Help
- Performance Support Systems (PSS)
- Incentives / Feedback Systems

Consulting Services

Organizations often lack the internal expertise or objectivity to make learning and performance improvement decisions. HSA's highly qualified learning and performance professionals can help you make the right decisions with confidence.

- Front-End Analysis / Needs Assessment
- Performance Consulting
- Curriculum and Learning Environment Design
- Transition from Training to Performance Support
- Professional Development Seminars
- Evaluation and Measurement
- Job Task Analysis (JTA)
- Benchmarking Studies
